

During this unprecedented impact of the Coronavirus (COVID–19) pandemic we wanted to reassure you of our continued service.

We understand that you will be dealing with your own organisational challenges in facing the realities of COVID-19, but please be assured that we will be available to render all legal assistance to you without disruption.

We endeavour to post regular legal and industry updates on our website to keep you informed.

We, at LMA, hope and pray for everyone’s continued safety.
